PARTICIPANT INFORMATION SHEET

Section A: The Research Project

The title of this research project is: From unearthing values to building educational foundations: how the values of Education Swanage were influential in founding The Swanage School.

The purpose of the study is to explore the influence of values related to the practice of the researcher and Education Swanage (ES). The researcher intends to research how her practice and that of ES influenced the founding of The Swanage School. The value is to enhance her own skills through self study and reflection and also to explore the influence her work and the work of ES has on other practitioners and on social formation.

An invitation to participate will be made by letter by Helen O'Connor who is organising this research as part of her Professional Doctorate in Practical Theology. The results of the study will be confidential and all participants will be anonymous. All data will be kept securely at the home of the researcher.

Section B: Your Participation in the Research Project

You have been invited to take part because you have relevant experience related to the research, for example, because you are a member of Education Swanage. You may refuse to take part and can withdraw at any time by completing the form on the consent letter.

If you agree to take part you will be involved in one or more of the following methods of data collection:

1. Email correspondence
2. Completion of a questionnaire
3. Attendance as a participant in a validation group
4. Take part in a one to one interview

There are no significant risks involved but you will be made aware of practical issues concerning the venue the event will be held in. Agreement to participate in this research should not compromise your legal rights should something go wrong.

Data collected during the research will be kept securely and then destroyed when the research project is complete. Your participation in the research will be kept anonymous and confidential as you will not be named at any stage and a code will be used to represent participants.

YOU WILL BE GIVEN A COPY OF THIS TO KEEP,
TOGETHER WITH A COPY OF YOUR CONSENT FORM
